About Meredith

I entered finance after 2002, previously in Mining and Retail as a market analyst. While studying for my Advanced Diploma in Financial Services at Deakin University, I worked as a paraplanner. In 2004, I became a financial planner, earning Certified Financial Planning Practitioner status by 2007.

I've worked at diverse firms like Bailiwick Financial Services, Rothgard Financial Partners, and RACQ Financial Planning (formerly QTCU Financial Planning). During my 16 years at RACQ, I progressed from Senior Financial Planner to General Manager.

After RACQ was acquired by Bridges Financial Services, I took a career break, assisting RACQ and helping my parents with aged care. Now, I'm back, passionate about guiding clients toward their goals. I excel at simplifying complexity and navigating life's systems for my clients.

- Bonus – I may be eligible to receive a bonus, based on a combination of revenue and meeting pre-determined annual performance-based criteria.
- Profits – I may be eligible to receive a percentage of profits from the Practice.

Client fee and payment options

Before providing advice, we will agree the fees and payment options with you. The fee you pay will depend on the complexity of your circumstances and the services you require. Your options to pay for our services can include fee for service, commission, or a combination of both.

Fee for service: Fee for service is based on the service we provide. This fee can be determined by:

- An hourly rate.

We can invoice you directly for our fee for service. Alternatively, some products allow an adviser service fee to be deducted from the balance of your investment.
